Colby Fire Information

On January 16, 2014 at about 5:40 am, the Glendora Police Department received several calls from residents reporting a fire in the foothills. Firefighters from the L.A. County Fire Department along with officers from the Glendora Police Department responded. At 6:34 am, a Glendora Police Officer detained two subjects running in a flood control wash channel in the 800 block of E. Palm Ave. U.S. Forestry contacted a third subject in the area of Glendora Mountain Road and Colby Trail around 8:37 am. All three subjects were arrested and booked at the Glendora Police Department with the charges of 452(c) PC – Unlawfully causing a fire of a structure or forest land, a felony with a bail of $20,000.

The Glendora Police Department is asking for citizens to stay away from the areas affected by the fire to allow L.A. County Fire and U.S. Forestry Service access to the roads and trails to fight this fire.

The Glendora Police Department reminds the public that 911 is for emergency calls. For non-emergency call please call 626-914-8250.

RESIDENTS:

Citizens will need to show identification in order to go back in the areas that were evacuated. The Glendora Police Department will have extra officers on duty to extra-patrol the areas affected by evacuations.

The Red Cross will be running the evacuation center at the Glendora High School Event Center, located at 1600 E. Foothill Bl, Glendora.

CITY OF GLENDORA

For Immediate Release

Due to the poor air quality, close your windows and doors and use your air conditioning if possible. Leaving the area might be the only option for those people who have health issues that cannot withstand poor air quality.

Keep in mind that wildlife in the area will be displaced and might be areas that we are not used to. Please do not leave pets in the backyard as those displaced animals will be looking for food and shelter.

ANIMAL ISSUES:

Please contact Inland Valley Humane Society located 500 Humane Way, Pomona, CA 91766. Their phone number is (909) 623-9777.
